

Distribution Services

FNEX provides turn-key product distribution for Mutual Funds, Private Funds, and Hedge Funds.

Our sales teams have placed over $12B in the last four years and our registered representatives are located in nearly every state in the United States. At FNEX, we offer an experienced, institutional sales team and distribution network to provide you a cost-effective, customized product sales solution.

FNEX Sales Teams

- ✓ Our sales team distributes alternative fund product to a diverse clientele that have come to expect new and interesting products.
- ✓ Our registered representatives have a wide range of regional experience, with an average of over 15 years of experience in distribution to institutions and financial professionals.
- ✓ FNEX currently represents several boutiques and specialty asset managers, providing marketing support, key accounts assistance, and an independent field sales force.

Distribution Services

Our representatives have long-term relationships with financial advisors, which creates the opportunity to help our fund managers raise long-term, quality assets.

- ✓ Our sales teams are 100% commission based, putting our faith in our ability to perform for our fund manager partners. We believe in achieving long-term relationships based upon mutual success. Because we are paid on a performance basis, we have developed a strict process for selecting products for distribution.
- ✓ Our model allows FNEX to become your outsourced, external sales force, based upon a flat fee—no retainers, expense allowances, or tiered payouts.
- ✓ Services provided by FNEX are a low-risk/high-reward opportunity for our fund partners.
